

2022 Wisconsin Wing Summer Encampment

The Babbling Badger

Friday, July 1, 2022

Day 6: You Can Be My Wingman Anytime!

Recap:

We've reached the final stretch! In less than 24 hours, Wisconsin Wing Summer Encampment students will march across the parade field and reunite with their loved ones! Today, all three schools are being given final evaluations on drill, uniforms, knowledge, and teamwork. This is their shining opportunity to boast their sharpened skills for the final parade tomorrow afternoon! Tonight, all three schools receive their graduation certificates. Additionally, all honors of the week have been named to those cadets who went above and beyond this week. Job well done everybody!!

Tomorrow's Menu

Breakfast:

- Misc. Eggs, Misc. Fr Toast / Pancakes, Misc. Sausage, Misc. Hash Browns, Asst. Cereal, Granola Bars, Yogurt, Bagels / Toast, and Asst. fruit

Lunch:

- NO NEED - BOXED LUNCH

Dinner:

- WHATEVER YOU WANT! CONGRATULATIONS!!!!

Meet the Executive Staff:

C/Lt Col Donaldson:

"I Make sure both the Flight Staff and Support Staff run smoothly for the success of the Wisconsin Basic School. When I was a Cadet Airman, I decided I wanted to finish my cadet career as an encampment cadet commander. This was fueled by family and mentorship. One of my mentors on the path to where I am now is Jacob Erdman. Don't be afraid to fail, and fail often. You get everything from failure, but nothing from success"

C/Capt Killeen:

“My day to day job is managing the operations side of encampment. I also manage everything the Wisconsin Basic School students see during the week as an indirect supervisor. Since this is my last year at encampment, I wanted to see how the Marine Corps trained me to handle a prestigious position such as deputy commander. My goal is to leave an impact on the next generation of cadets. I want to look back on my time in Civil Air Patrol and ask myself “did I shape the next generation taking over after I age out?”. Being in this job allows me to give a strong answer to that internal question. No matter how hard it seems, there will always be light. Keep soaring, and you’ll reach the stars. Keep digging, and you’ll always find diamonds”

C/Capt Dael:

“My job is to figure out what needs and materials are required for the main activities of the day. I also keep my people informed because communication is critical to the support staff. Before each day, I look ahead and craft plans that best utilize my staff. My support staff are the backbone of the encampment. We make sure that supplies are provided when needed, parents are kept up to date about how their children are doing, and I make sure all paperwork flows smoothly. These plans consist of organizing classes for the students, coordinating movement of individual daily duties / activities, and supporting all upcoming events. I absolutely love servant leadership. I’ve always loved helping people have fun. There’s no better way to serve these cadets than to be the deputy commander of support. It’s never about you, the individual. Leadership is about doing whatever you can to assure the success of your team, whatever it takes. No matter how high up the chain I am, I always see myself as just another cadet; The chain of command is really an upside down pyramid, this means that humility can only grow on you as a leader as you climb the chain of command”

Meet the Public Affairs Staff:

C/CMSgt Elisabeth Maas

C/1st Lt Aveline Jacob

"Fail early, fail often, but always fail forward"

C/Capt Ethan Feltquate

"Arm yourself with what you know, to go somewhere you've never been. Before long, you'll have been around the world"

Capt Lisa Bastian

"As a leader, you are what you allow. Surround yourself with mentors and friends who can influence your path in a positive way"

HONORS OF THE WEEK:

WISCONSIN BASIC SCHOOL HONOR CADET:

C/A1C Mattison Sparks

CADET DEVELOPMENT COURSE
HONOR CADET:

C/TSgt Piper M. Campbell

WISCONSIN CADET ACADEMY
HONOR CADET:

C/CMSgt Ryan Whitney

SENIOR STAFF HONOR AWARD:

Capt Kristen L. Walukas

WISCONSIN STAFF SCHOOL HONOR AWARD:

C/CMSgt Logan Reimer - Echo Flight

BRAVO  ZULU