

WISCONSIN WING 2024 ENCAMPMENT NEWSLETTER

Day 1
6/30/2024

Highlight Of The Day: Room Inspections

The students' first barracks inspection, conducted by the flight and squadron staff, took place today. As the name implies, it is an inspection administered to the student sleeping quarters. They were judged and corrected based on the expectations set by the Standards and Evaluations Team (SET), and on their general room cleanliness. The standards are incredibly high, and every single student is expected to meet them.

These cadets have given up spending their birthdays with their families to attend 2024 Wisconsin Wing Encampment and grow as leaders and people.

Let's wish them a happy birthday!

Encampment Media

There's only so much we can fit into one newsletter, try as we might, so the photos you may be looking out for might not make it into a newsletter. Despite this, you can be assured that the Public Affairs team will capture that picture you are looking for of your cadet. Scan this QR code for the links to all our social media!

Drill And Ceremonies

Drill and ceremonies have been a vital part of cadet life since 1942, so it stands to reason that it is a very important part of the cadet student's encampment experience. The primary importance of drill is to build teamwork and promote attention to detail.

A flight learns to adapt their movements to match those of the team, and eventually they visibly come together as a single, cohesive unit, as everyone marches in step and executes commands with precision.
